To all who are spiritually weary and seek rest; to all who mourn and long for comfort; to all who struggle and desire victory; to all who sin and need a savior; to all who are strangers and want fellowship; to all who hunger and thirst after righteousness; and to whomsoever will come, this church opens wide her doors and offers welcome in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

All proceeds benefit the following local charities

Arlington-Alexandria Coalition for the Homeless (AACH)

www.aachhomeless.org

AACH is a private non-profit organization that provides transitional housing and support services to homeless families and women in Arlington County and the City of Alexandria in Virginia – but AACH does much more than that. It provides a foundation to help people rebuild their lives. AACH's mission is to move people into a permanently self-sufficient, independent life.

Doorways for Women and Families

www.doorwaysva.org

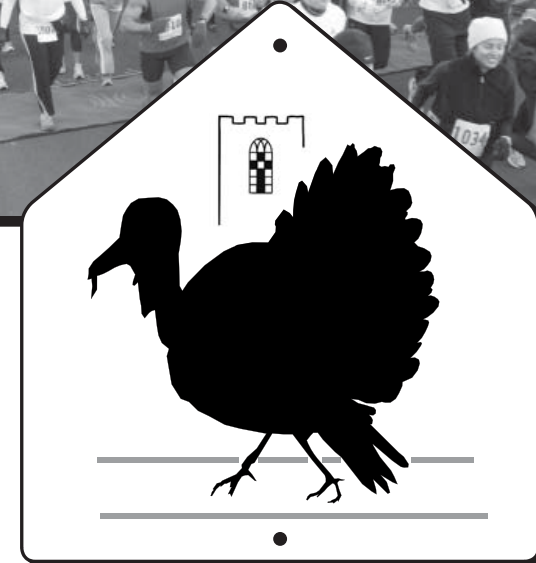

Doorways is a local ministry providing support for women and families during a time of crisis, often involving domestic violence. Doorways empowers women and families who are abused, homeless or at-risk to live safe, secure and self-sufficient lives. They provide self-sufficiency and prevention services, and educate the larger community about domestic violence and homelessness.

Arlington Food Assistance Center

www. afacinfo.org

Arlington Food Assistance Center (AFAC) is dedicated to providing supplemental groceries to Arlington residents who cannot afford to purchase sufficient food to meet their basic needs. It complements the work of AACH, Doorways, the Arlington County Department of Human Services, Arlington churches, and other social service agencies by providing groceries to families and individuals referred by those organizations.
